

Ambès Strike Ends

Orion Engineered Carbons SAS and the union representing its workers have reached agreement to end the strike at its Ambès, France, carbon black plant. Product shipments have resumed and startup of operations has begun.

Consultations between the company and the Works Council continue regarding the final closure of the facility.

Contact:

Jeff Malenky

Senior Vice President, Global Human Resources

Phone +1 832 445-3303

jeff.malenky@orioncarbons.com